ST. PAUL REACHES HIGH MARK

Change Comes During the Afternoon, With Marked Effect on Many Leading Stocks.

NEW YORK, October 4.-Heavy buying of stocks was resumed at the opening today's market, with substantial throughout the general list. Canadian Pacific rose 2 points, and there was especial strength in Atchison, the Harriman and Hill issues, Coppers, Steel and General Electric. The few nominal declines at the opening included Smelting and Harvester. The buying movement broadened considerably after the opening, embracing a number of specialties at advances of 1 to 2 points. Of the leaders, St. Paul was the feature at its best price of Optimistic Feeling Abroad.

CONSERVATION CONGRESS

ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Millionaire Cleveland Resident Named President and Washington Man Secretary.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., October 4.-Charles Lathrop Pack, an expert forester and millionaire of Cleveland, Ohio, today was elected president of the National Conservation Congress for next year. Other officers chosen are: Vice president, Mrs. Philip N. Moore, St. Louis; executive secretary, Thomas R. Shipp. Indianapolis: recording secretary, J. C. Gipe, Washington, D. C., and treasurer,

Amendments to the constitution placing the congress on a permanent basis, with a membership instead of having the delegates appointed by states, municipalities and organizations, were adopted.

Dr. Burton J. Ashley of Morgan Park, Ill., in his address on "Sewerage Dispo-sition," said a badly constructed sewer system was worse than none at all, as it created a false sense of security. Dr. Livingston Farrand of New York, executive secretary of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, deplored the lack of meth ods for the registration of tuberculo sis cases and estimated there are 2,000,000 cases annually in the United States. George H., Lahmer, representing the mayor of Pittsburgh, explained the flood commission of that city. The congress will adjourn this afternoon.

Isn't nearly so important as that you should start an account and persistently add to it.

Of course, we should prefer to have you open the account at our bank, because we know how strong and safe it is, and we know that you will always receive courteous and considerate treatment, but no matter what bank you select, do it at once. You can never get anywhere unless you start. Make the start. You don't have to wait until you can make a big deposit; a single dollar is enough to start a Savings Account at this bank and you can add to it as often as you please.

PHILIP H. WEBER DEAD.

Employe of War Department Succumbs From Attack of Pneumonia. Philip H. Weber, one of the oldest employes of the War Department, died to-at 1242 Pleasant street, Anacostia, after a short illness of pneumonfa. Mr. Weber was a veteran of the civil war, in which he held the rank of sergeant, general service, and had been connected with the War Department as clerk and messenger since August, 1882. Most of his service was in the office of the Secretary of War, where he made a good record for faithfulness and effici-good record for faithfulness and efficiency. He attended the recent encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Los Angeles, Cal., and returned to this city during the recent cold spell. He caught a severe cold, which developed into pneumonia and caused his death.

The arrangements for his funeral are not completed, but it is understood that the burial will be in Arlington national cameters.
